Vietnamese American Youth Leadership Conference (VAYLC)

July 29 - August 1, 1999

Washington, D.C.

As we move forward into the next Millennium, young people will need strong leadership skills and characters to maintain and strengthen Democracy, to serve their communities and help society as a whole. More dynamic and skillfull young Vietnamese American leaders are especially needed to support, develop, and strengthen Vietnamese American communities throughout the United States. Young Vietnamese American leaders will be an important source of new energy and visions.

Recognizing the pivotal role that young Vietnamese Amercian leaders will have in their communities and other areas, a group of youth organizations, communities, professional societies, and scholars have organized a major conference for young Vietnamese American leaders (high school Seniors (18 yr.) and College/University students): Vietnamese American Youth Leadership Conference (VAYLC), July 29 to August 1, 1999, Washington, D.C..

The three-day conference will include seminars and training sessions in three critical areas: Leadership Skills and Characters, Technology for Leaders, and Vietnamese History and Heritage. The seminars will be dynamic, interactive, and will be led by experienced and well-known Vietnamese American professionals and scholars throughout the U.S.

Conference participants will also have one day to visit and talk with U.S. Senators, Representatives, White House Officials, and to tour the U.S. Capitol, the White House, the Supreme Court, the Library of Congress, and other famous monuments and museums. Participants will also enjoy a Gala reception and dance.
